Who are the Presenters?

Tim Dyer

Tim serves with John Mark Ministries as a national trainer of church consultants, mentors and leaders.

He is a regular speaker at Pastor's and Clergy Conference in areas of leadership, church systems, professional ethics, mentoring, conflict management and the impact of clergy sexual abuse. He contributes to in-service training programs for clergy and leaders across several denominations and states.

He married to Merran, a GP and they have 2 adults sons doing tertiary studies and 2 teenage daughters at high school.

For relaxation, Tim enjoys bushwalking in the Tasmanian Highlands, camping, reading and music.

Jill Martin

Having moved to Tassie at age 2, I was raised in New Norfolk (eldest of six children; typical 1950s upbringing, wasn't it great?) and went to UTAS to do a science degree and a DipEd, just like mum and dad (!) Met and married Allister, and we settled at Woodbridge where we established the Marine Discovery Centre in 1978, and had three wonderful children; Ben, Sarah and Matilda.

In 1986 we left Woodbridge to start a small Christian school in Kingston and grew that from 20 students on its first day to 150 when we moved on. More recently we started Mission Afloat, a nautical adventure programme that was designed to excite and inspire the next generation of school children by getting them out onto the water!

I still teach science, but have been back to uni to complete a B. Min and now work for the Anglican Church in Tasmania, at present in the Moonah parish (when I am not bushwalking, reading, boating with Allister, or looking after my four beautiful grandchildren!)"

Brenda Williams

I am a Social Worker and work 2 days a week with Baptist Union of Victoria as the Professional Standards Worker. Previous to this role I worked as the Program Manager of the Out of Home Care Program in an agency that works with children and families. My role in the BUV is to manage the complaints process for Pastoral Leaders and I also consult with Pastors and Church Leaders about difficult issues that occur in their congregations. I also provide similar support to Tasmanian Baptist Church Pastors and Leaders.

I am a member of Grovedale Baptist Church in Geelong, Victoria and currently serve on their Church Council. We have 5 adult children and three grandchildren.
